

Israeli - Palestinian Joint Statement, Cairo, 9 November 1993.

Another round of talks between Israel and the PLO took place in Cairo on 8-9 November. But there was very limited progress and the key problems of security, access, Israeli presence on the Allenby Bridge and the size of Jericho were not resolved. Text:

The Israeli- Palestinian working group, headed respectively by Major-General Amnon Lipkin-Shahak and Dr. Nabil Sha'ath, convened in Cairo on 8-9 of November 1993, in order to proceed with negotiations on the Gaza Strip and the Jericho areas. The negotiations were conducted in a positive and constructive atmosphere. Following intensive talks, progress was achieved on several issues and it was decided to continue the negotiations next week. Both delegations expressed their appreciation and thanks to President Mubarak and the Egyptian government and people for their hospitality, and for facilitating the efforts to achieve progress.
